

Alopecia Fail: Embarrassed Bald Eagle Clearly Wearing a Wig

ANCHORAGE, AK - Still not over the frustrating failure with Rogaine \(minoxidil\) in October 2017, our nation's symbol was spotted clearly wearing a wig in a weak attempt to hide his alopecia and male-pattern baldness. "That's right, I look just like all the other eagles with full heads of hair, all real, baby," the bald eagle said with a little more pep in his step. The bald eagle doesn't realize we all know he's wearing a wig. That being said, it is certainly amusing; from certain angles the bald eagle does resemble John Lennon or any other of the Fab Four.
